Description

Privacy behind a monitor arm. It sounds obvious. Until now, nobody made it.

A smart little addition that solves a surprisingly obvious problem, the Woomera Monitor Screen integrates directly with the monitor arm, extending behind the display to create a visual and acoustic buffer without restricting movement, adjustability or ergonomic range.

Designed for hot-desking, open-plan and activity-based working, it creates a defined sense of place without hemming you in. No fixed screen. No wasted footprint. Just privacy where you need it, while keeping the workstation free to move. Your monitor moves. Your privacy moves with it.

Built from acoustic PET it also helps soften ambient noise, creating a quieter visual focus zone behind the screen.

Privacy that moves with you. Focus without the walls
